MATCH PREVIEW

El Paso Locomotive FC (9-9-6, 33 pts., West-6) takes its first trip to visit Monterey Bay F.C. (7-11-2, 23 pts., West-12) at Cardinale Stadium in Seaside, California on Saturday, August 6. Kickoff is set for 8:00 p.m. MT and will be broadcast live on ESPN+.

In April, Monterey Bay visited Southwest University Park, receiving a 5-0 drubbing from El Paso Locomotive that served as El Paso's first win of the season. The complete dominate performance by the Sun City club helped launch Locomotive into a successful run over its next 16 games, earning a record of 8-2-6. The incredible run has seen Locomotive springboard into a playoff position as it heads into the last 10 regular season games of the 2020 USL Championship season.

Locomotive now kicks off its push to the playoffs against a Monterey Bay F.C. side that has had nothing but success since the start of July. In its last five matches, Monterey has stood undefeated, earning three wins and two draws as it attempts to turn freshman season around. Currently sitting at 12th in the Western Conference, the California side has 14 games to sneak into a playoff position. As the two sides begin their playoff push, Locomotive and Monterey Bay will clash in what is set to be a thrilling contest between two Western Conference teams.

PREVIOUSLY VS OPPONENT

Locomotive earned its first win of the season with a 5-0 drubbing over league newcomers Monterey Bay F.C. Diego Luna, Dylan Mares, and Andrew Fox each scored a goal apiece while the remaining two were earned by Aaron Gomez.

Locomotive dominated the entirety of the match from the opening whistle, peppering the Monterey Bay goal with 23 shots throughout the night. Defensively, Locomotive kept Monterey Bay F.C. without a shot on goal after 90 minutes.

The Locos started their scoring onslaught in the 19th minute with a header from Fox before Gomez doubled the lead with a penalty kick just before halftime. Through the second half, Locomotive played a 10-man Monterey Bay side, opening up Gomez to earn his brace before Diego Luna scored his Goal of the Week in the 51st minute. Mares added the cherry on top for the 5-0 clean sheet in the 75th minute.

MATCH FAST FACTS

- Earlier in the year, Locomotive snapped a four game losing streak with a complete 5-0 win over Monterey Bay. The win sparked a 8-2-6 record over 16 games for El Paso. Locos will look to earn a win to springboard results late in the season.
- Should Midfielder Christiano Francois make an appearance against Monterey Bay F.C., it will be his 150th USL Championship Regular Season appearance.
- Christiano Francois has two connections to the Monterey Bay F.C. side. In 2020, Francois played alongside Sam Gleadle at Reno 1868 FC and in 2021, he played with Chris Cortez at Miami FC
- Lucho Solignac also has two connections within Monterey Bay F.C. In 2020, he played alongside Hunter Gorskie and Kai Greene at San Antonio FC.

After his playing career, Garzon began his track towards coaching, in part due to his two kids. Garzon began coaching their recreational games, finding that the kids on the team were beginning to pay attention to him. As his kids grew, he continued coaching through to high school programs, taking one team to the regional semi-finals for the first time in 20 years, earning Coach of the Year in 2014.

Garzon holds a Coaching B-License and holds a Bachelor degree in Polic Studies. He is in El Paso with his wife Rquel and daughter, Tatiana, and son, Santiago.

RICARDO RUIZ athletic trainer

Born in Chihuahua, Mexico, but moved to El Paso at the age of two, Ricardo Ruiz is a Borderplex and El Paso native. Growing up through high school, Ricardo was a versatile athlete, playing basketball, baseball, and soccer. Unfortunately, in his senior year, Ricardo suffered a knee injury that took him out of the player role, but put him on track towards the trainer role.

Ricardo went on to get a Bachelor degree in Kinesiology and a Masters in Sports Administration from Michigan State University before jumping into the major leagues. Starting in 2006, Ricardo worked in the National Football League (NFL) with the Detroit Lions, then moved on to Major League Baseball (MLB) to work with the New York Mets in 2008 and the LA Dodgers starting in 2011.

In 2013, Ricardo returned to the Southwest desert, working as the Head Trainer at New Mexico Highlands university for three years before joining Locomotive in 2020.

Ricardo is joined in El Paso by his wife of 11 years and have two kids - a son (6) and daughter (9)

SAUL SOTO strength & conditioning coach

Born and raised in El Paso, Saul Soto attended East Yselta High School, lettering in six different sports (football, basketball, track, cross country, soccer, and baseball). Making sports his entire life, Saul would go from one practice to the next.

Post high school, Saul began going to college, enrolling in a bridge program to coaching sports. He started at 18, coaching middle school sports before coaching high school from 1997 to 2002. After his high school coaching career, Saul moved to Boston where he did a stint in the corporate world working in security and anti-fraud with the Bank of New York. Even while away from coaching, Saul never left sports, working with a non-profit organization called Sports for Kids in Boston. Saul soon moved back to El Paso, joining Locomotive as the strength coach and eventually adding the title of player operations.

Saul holds several degrees including a Bachelor's in Mathematic Statistics, a Master's in Math, a Master's in Education and a Master's of Science in Kinesiology, all which he earned from Univeristy of Texas El Paso, where he also teaches part time.

Saul has an adopted Doberman named Jerome.
